Safeguarding Children in the Digital Age

The internet provides children and young people with countless opportunities for learning, development and socialisation, but the rapidly evolving digital world also presents significant threats to their safety.

Safeguarding children and young people today requires a solid understanding of how to safeguard children online.

This is an essential national conference for the entire children’s workforce. We have secured some of the country’s leading experts to provide an all-round grasp of the principal dangers, and equip you with the understanding, skills and confidence to enable children and young people to stay safe in the digital age.

Who should attend?
- Local authority children’s and families’ services
- Heads of safeguarding and safeguarding managers
- LCSB chairs and members
- Primary and secondary school headteachers and deputies
- Heads of year
- Heads of youth services and youth service managers
- Early help teams
